Our summer credit courses are offered virtually (no in-person credit courses) this year. Please note that all of our virtual classes are conducted 100% live, in real-time. We will never ask you to watch a video and figure things out on your own. Our online format is very close to an in-person teaching method. All students must keep their cameras on during the entire class time, per our school policy. This form of virtual classes worked exceptionally well last year, with everyone earning respectable grades. Our spaces are limited, so please consider applying soon!
